This national day of protest marks one year since the Civil Liberties Act granting redress and reparations was signed into law by President Reagan, yet Congress has committed no money. Join us in representing the over 2000 camp survivors who have died since the signing of that law last August.

JUSTICE DELAYED IS JUSTICE DENIED!

AUGUST 5, 1989
SATURDAY, 2 - 4 PM

J A C C C PLAZA
244 South San Pedro Street
Little Tokyo, Los Angeles

NCRR
NATIONAL COALITION FOR REDRESS AND REPARATIONS