

NCRRC Celebrates 10th Anniversary
by Miya Iwataki

A landmark 10th Anniversary Celebration combined with the 1990 Day of Remembrance Program will be held on Sunday, February 11, 1990 from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at the Japan American Theatre, 244 S. San Pedro in Little Tokyo announced NCRRC. A reception will immediately follow the program at 4:00 p.m. at the Little Tokyo Towers 433 Third Street.

The program will be festive: a celebration of the Entitlement which will begin on October 1st this year, as well as a celebration of NCRRC's 10th birthday. Our 1990 theme: "A Decade of Struggle: Looking to the Future." Highlights of the Day of Remembrance Program will include a visual presentation looking back upon NCRRC's "Decade of Struggle" working with the Japanese American community to win redress and reparations. Lane ("Life in the Fast Lane") Nishikawa will fly in to perform his works touching upon the camp experience.

Office of Redress Administration executive director Bob Bratt will fly in from Washington, D.C. to share in the festivities and provide the latest updates on the eligibility process. The Nippon Minyo Kenkyu Kai dance group will also grace the stage following a brief commemoration for those loved ones who have passed on. And one of our favorite Redress legislators will join us with some thoughts on the future.

The program theme, "A Decade of Struggle" Looking to the Future," also reflects the NCRRC national state of mind. As Redress and Reparations work winds down, discussions are taking place in NCRRC nationwide to determine the future direction of the organization.

The Day of Remembrance Program will provide a brief glimpse into some of the initial thinking revolving around our "Looking to the Future."

As is our tradition, there is no charge for the Day of Remembrance Program and reception. Those planning to attend are encouraged to RSVP due to space limitations. To RSVP, please call the NCRR hotline (213) 680-3484.
