

The first comprehensive exploration of NCCR's roots, history, and continuing impact over four decades, NCCR: The Grassroots Struggle for Japanese American Redress and Reparations is based on first-hand accounts of the fight for redress. What emerges is a rich portrait of voices and narratives that illustrate how a popular, egalitarian, grassroots campaign for social justice blossomed into a powerful voice for ordinary people and made the fight for redress a people's campaign.

Information about ordering the book can be found on NCCR's website: www.ncrr-la.org.

NCCR: The Grassroots Struggle for Japanese American Redress and Reparations is edited by Lane Ryo Hirabayashi and Nikkei for Civil Rights & Redress. It is published by the UCLA Asian American Studies Center Press.

NCRR: The Grassroots Struggle for Japanese American Redress and Reparations

NCRR operated as a national network with a statewide steering committee representing chapters based in California, while working with grassroots communities toward passage of the Civil Liberties Act of 1988.

This book highlights Glen Kitayama's master's thesis, forty-four personal stories, oral histories, archival photos, poetry, Day of Remembrance posters and a chronology, shared primarily by NCRR's Los Angeles Chapter. As the first comprehensive account of NCRR's history, and continuing activism over four decades, it provides insight into the legacy of the Asian American Movement.

Join us at NCRR's official Book Launch Celebration
Saturday, June 16, 2018, 2 –4pm
Japanese American Cultural & Community Center
Garden Room A

244 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles

Hosted by NCRR and UCLA Asian American Studies Center

Please check NCRR's website for future book readings planned for the Bay Area and Southern California: www.ncrr-la.org

EDITED BY Lane Ryo Hirabayashi and the NCRR Editorial Team: Richard Katsuda, Suzy Katsuda, Kathy Masaoka, Kay Ochi and Janice Iwanaga Yen.

PUBLISHED BY UCLA Asian American Studies Center Press

GRAPHIC DESIGN BY Qris Yamashita

Nikkei for Civil Rights & Redress
231 East Third Street, Suite G-104, Los Angeles, California 90013 www.ncrr-la.org

